St. Valentine's Day.

That valentines are not obsolete was proven by the crowd out selecting them yesterday.

There was much merry-making among the valentine-buyers. Some inclined to the sentimental idea, and could not have too much of the Cupid-forget-me-not type. The humorous type appealed to that portion of humanity always fond of making its meaning clear through the medium of a joke.

A worthy gentleman, whose spouse is fond of going through her husband's pockets after he is snoring peacefully, at night, sought anxiously until his eye lighted upon a comic sheet, which exactly reproduced the picture he had in his mind's eye. He glared over the fun he expected to have at his wife's expense, and procured an envelope to enclose his valentine offering, carefully directed on the typewriter, so that there might be no clue, by means of handwriting, to the sender.

There were schoolgirls intent upon choosing the rosiest-hued valentine on the sales counter, and there were young men in plenty selecting something upon which soft eyes might light with pleasure.

At the florists the prettiest valentines were ordered sent, many young men choosing the favorite flower of their best beloved, and making their offering to Saint Valentine in roses, lilies-of-the-valley, carnations, violets, orchids or sweet peas.

At the confectioners there was everything that artistic fancy and ingenuity could suggest in the way of valentine novelties and devices. The most beautiful heart-shaped boxes for holding sweets, with bunches of flowers, head in place by ribbons, and inside covered with roses and violets, enclosing a little love with an arrow in his hand and a heart for a background.

For one day the world stops to be foolish and sentimental and to realize that the world is all the better for even this brief worship at the shrine of Saint Valentine.

Moritz-Jennings.

A marriage which will be of interest to people throughout the State took place at noon Tuesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McHenry, No. 807 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Md., when their niece, Miss Martha Washington Jennings, became the bride of Dr. John Dierdick Moritz. The Rev. Dr. J. Houston Eccleston officiated.

The bride, who is a native of Warren, Va., and is a descendant of a distinguished Virginia family, entered with her uncle, Mr. McHenry. She wore an exquisite gown of white satin, trimmed with ribbons, and carried a shower of lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Julia Braddeck-Kane, maid of honor, was gown in pale blue chiffon and carried pink roses. Mr. Charles Hurst was best man, and the ushers were Mr. William J. Jennings, of Richmond; Mr. William Nicholson, of Philadelphia; Mr. Alexander Reiman, of New York; Messrs. James McHenry, Jr., Charles Reiman and Percy Lucas, of Baltimore.

Elaborate decorations in the parlors were in palms and pink and white roses. In the dining-room the decorations were in white and silver. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony. After a Northern tour Dr. and Mrs. Moritz will be at home at Piedmont Lodge, Keswick, Va.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Kathleen Bruce, of this city, and Mr. James D. Chamberlain, of Warrenton, Ore.

Masquerade Ball.

Mrs. Lizzie Moore, of "Rock Hill," Fauquier county, gave a pretty masquerade ball in honor of the Misses Moore on Friday evening last.

An elegant supper was served after the dances. Among the guests were Mrs. Wade H. Massie as "Queen of Hearts," Miss Moore as "Evening," Mrs. Edward McCormick Greene as "Lady Guinevere," Miss Mary B. Browning as "Valentine," Mrs. H. S. Fletcher as "Mother Superior," Miss Elizabeth Moore as "Martha Washington," Miss Millan as "Gypsy." The gentlemen represented ghosts, and a very merry evening was spent.

Auxiliary to Meet.

An important meeting of the Church Hill Auxiliary, Retreat for the Sick, will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ramon D. Garlin, Twenty-seventh and Broad streets. A large attendance is desired.

Love and Death

By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

We have seen thee, O Love, thou art fair; thou art goodly, O Love Thy wings make light in the air as the wings of a dove. Thy feet are as winds that divide the stream of the sea; Earth is thy covering to hide thee, the garment of thee. Thou art swift and subtle and kind as a flame of fire. Before thee the laughter behind thee the tears of desire; And twain go forth beside thee, a man with a maid; Her eyes are the eyes of a bride whom delight makes afraid; As the breath in the buds that stir in her bridal breath; But Fate is the name of her; and his name is Death.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day.

Chapter to Meet.

Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold an important meeting this forenoon at 11 o'clock in the assembly hall of Woman's Christian Association Building. All chapter members are urged to be present.

Social Club Meets.

A new club, known as the "Independent Ovals," held their third weekly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. J. Warren, Chestnut Hill. Members present were: Mrs. Phillips, Miss Grace Slaughter, Mrs. Broshner, Miss Lottie Slaughter, Miss Chammie Warren, Miss Stella Bass, Miss Julia Warren, Mr. E. C. Fraser, Mr. Conway Cosby, Mr. E. C. Brown, Mr. D. T. Darrow, Mr. D. H. Gosson, Mr. A. M. Pullen, Mr. J. G. Kohle and Mr. A. H. Thornton.

The evening passed off in a delightful manner, the crowd being entertained by playing several familiar games, and also with some good vocal and instrumental music by Misses Warren and Slaughter. After the evening was far spent the hostess, Mrs. A. J. Warren, served delicious refreshments, after which the club adjourned to meet on next Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. L. T. Slaughter, No. 805 1-2 East Leigh Street.

Daffodil Tea.

Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart of No. 1021 West Grace Street, was hostess at a beautiful 5 o'clock tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. S. C. Macaulay, of Louisville, Ky.

Pretty spring-time decorations were in daffodils, artistically arranged in tall crystal vases, and reflected here and there by the delicate tracery of ferns and smilax.

Mrs. Stewart was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Cameron Johnson, Mrs. Philip B. Smith, Mrs. J. J. Jamieson and Mrs. Marshall Gilman. Ladies serving in the dining-room were: Mrs. William Mayo, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mrs. Aubrey Young, Miss Mabel Walker and Miss Mary B. Baughman.

A large number of people called to meet Mrs. Macaulay, who proved to be as charming in social life as she is in literature.

Valentine Bridge Party.

Miss Roberta Ashley Smith, of No. 827 West Grace Street, entertained at a pretty bridge party Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Townsend, of Philadelphia. Dainty valentines were used as tally cards, and other accessories were in keeping with the season.

Miss Smith's guests were Miss Townsend, Miss Mary Esser, of Pennsylvania; Miss Katherine Newell, of Norfolk; Miss Susan Robertson, of Staunton; Miss Elizabeth Frazier, Miss Courtney Crump; Messrs. Fontaine Jones, William R. Trice, Pope Nash, Leslie Reid, Beverly Fleet and Gordon Smith.

Stay-at-Home Whist.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Wednesday evening with Miss Jane Rutherford, six tables being engaged. Top score was a tie between Miss Margaret Morison and Mr. J. L. Cary, against Miss Eliza Harvey and Mr. W. R. Robins.

Richmonders Entertained.

Misses Hattie and Lina Shields, who have been the guests of friends in Norfolk, have received much complimentary social attention during their visit. On Thursday evening last they were guests at an attractive dinner given aboard the U. S. S. Virginia. On Monday evening the Misses Shields and Miss Rosalie Miller, who is the guest in Norfolk of Miss Belle Merritt, attended a beautiful dinner also on board the Virginia. Rear-Admiral Charles Thomas, Captain Schroeder and the officers of the ship were hosts. The deck, where the dance took place, was prettily decorated with daisies and holly, and the entire evening was most delightful.

Splendid Paper.

A particularly interesting and well-prepared paper was read before the history class of the Woman's Club yesterday by Mrs. T. William Pemberton. Her subject was "The Early Administration of Sir William Berkeley and the Year 1642." Mrs. Pemberton gave a dramatic recital, and Mrs. B. H. Ellington will read a carefully-prepared paper.

Chapter Meeting.

Commonwealth Chapters, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet Friday at noon with Mrs. Warner Moore, of No. 813 West Franklin Street. The program will be of a literary and musical character. Mrs. M. B. Thomas, soloist, and Miss Zeigler, pianist, will furnish the music. Mrs. Edward Beecher Finck will give a dramatic recital, and Mrs. B. H. Ellington will read a carefully-prepared paper.

To Deliver Lecture.

Mrs. S. C. Macaulay, of Louisville, Ky., who is the guest in Richmond of Mrs. Cameron Johnson, has kindly consented to give an informal talk entitled "Bits of Japan" at the Woman's Club next Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for the benefit of the Church of the Covenant. Mrs. Macaulay spent five years in Japan, and is fully prepared to speak most engagingly on the subject. She is an aunt of Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, creator of the immortal Mrs. Wiggs, and is herself an accomplished author, her book, "The Lady of the Daisies," having won praise from the highest critics. Tickets for the lecture may be obtained from the members of the Ladies' Guild, Church of the Covenant, especially Miss Jane Rutherford, Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. Cameron Johnson and Mrs. Howell Bassett.

Valentine Tea.

A very enjoyable valentine tea will be given this afternoon from 4 to 6 and evening from 8 to 10 in the parlors of the Second Baptist Church, under the auspices of Circle No. 6 of the Building Fund Association.

The decorations in valentine colors will be very attractive. Festoons of crimson hearts will be hung from the chandeliers and troops of tiny Cupids will run riot in the walls. Dainty refreshments will be served. A special entertainment for children in the afternoon and a good musical program in the evening will be features of the occasion. A number of humorous readings will be given by one of Mrs. Pemberton's pupils. An expert fortune-teller will be in attendance. Among those who are expected to sing are Miss Miriam Fletcher, Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, Mrs. Henry Hotchkiss and the Grace Street Baptist Church choir, composed of Miss Madge Boyde, Miss Patty Isaacs, Mr. Haddon Watkins and Mr. Cosby.

Mrs. George F. Bagby has charge of arrangements, and among those assisting her are Misses Edna Williams, Miss Grace Greenwood, Miss Louise Williams, Misses Belle and Elizabeth Williamson, Miss Vena Palmer, Mrs. James Bowers, Miss Madge Montgomery, Miss Rosa Smith, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Louise Crump, Miss Helen Turner, Miss Grace Neal, Miss Marie Curtis, Miss Jessie Evans, Miss Nannie Cowardin, Miss Lillian Kellam, Misses Elise and Mary Garrett, Miss Anne Allison, Mrs. Bristol, Misses Lizzie and Louise Thomas, Miss Ellen Gregory, Misses Annie and Elva Pontich, Misses Louise and Mary McCarthy and others.

The Junior Chapter of Ascension Guild will give a pretty Valentine tea this afternoon and evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Hudson, at Highland Park. Pretty decorations in hearts and valentines will be used.

From 4 to 6 the little people will entertain their friends, when the following girls will be hostesses: Misses Eleanor and Margaret Enslow, Clara Shafer, Clara Gregory, Margaret Brown, Annie Allen, Elizabeth Spratley and Elizabeth Harrison.

In the evening from 8 to 10 a levy of young girls in pretty Valentine costumes will serve delicious refreshments for the older people.

Young ladies in charge will be Misses Josie and Mary Booth, Maud Hargrove, Carrie Todd, Virginia Sublett, Maud Harvey, Edith Yarbrough, Edith Allen, Hazel Jude, Edna Kelly, Virginia Jones and Grace Phillips. Ladies in charge of refreshments are Mrs. W. R. Yawer, Mrs. Lynn Enslow, Miss Dalton, Miss Agnes Royall, Mrs. William Royall, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Hittche, Miss Stacy, Mrs. John Burrows, Mrs. Boungman and Mrs. Robert Hudson.

BRILLIANT BALL AT LEXINGTON

One of the Most Delightful Functions of Season Occurs at Washington and Lee.

MANY DANCERS. VARIED DRESS

All Handsome and Not a Few Grotesque—Beautiful Souvenir Cards.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LXINGTON, VA., February 13.—The most brilliant function of the season was the masked ball held last night in the gymnasium of Washington and Lee University by the University Dramatic Club, under the management of Miss Anna R. White. The sparkling room was prettily decorated with ropes of evergreens and numerous Japanese lanterns. The various costumes, handsome and grotesque, interesting, lent a charm to the spectacle. The souvenir dance cards were unique, heart-shaped, with hand-painted designs in colors and pen and ink on white, by Mr. A. H. Payne, of Mountsville, Va. There were forty couples who participated, besides a number of cadets and stags. The function opened with grand march led by Captain and Mrs. Samuel B. Walker, as George and Martha Washington. Following the march, which was an intricate affair and executed with military precision, three sets of dances were danced, with several german figures, and concluding with the old Virginia Reel. The dance opened at 8:30 o'clock and concluded at 1 o'clock. During the progress of the ball a buffet supper was served.
